NEWSLETTER OF THE EVANSVILLE BICYCLE CLUB, EVANSVILLE, INDIANA

"The bicycle has a soul. If you succeed to love it, it will give you emotions that you will never forget." —Mario Cipollini

Paul Jensen, The President's Corner

Did everyone get what they wanted for Christmas?

Did everyone get what they wanted for Christmas? Hopefully you received some new biking gear or maybe even a new bike! Most of my effort was spent on re-adjusting to life in the Midwest as opposed to the East Midlands. England had unbelievable weather this fall. Out of the 107 days, three days had rain during the day and only three days found temperatures in the thirties; and that was in the early morning. How many times can anyone say they walked the streets of London in shorts and tee shirt in October?

With trips to Edinburgh, Brussels, Paris and London I observed the following: Brussels has the most cyclists, London had more cyclists that were "tourists" and Paris had the most scooter and motorcycle riders. Both London and Brussels had bicycle rental stations. There would be a row of thirty or so bicycles available to rent right there and then. Put your credit card in, take a bike, ride it to your destination, where there would be another station, put in your credit card and you would be charged for your time, simple as pie.

Harlaxton is located near Grantham, a city approximately 110 miles north of London. A train to London takes about an hour and five minutes. Many residents of Grantham work in London and would ride their bikes to the Grantham train station and commute to London to work. The station had at least fifty bicycles parked in its own lot. Needless to say, I would have had many miles on the bike if my back would have been more cooperative. Even though it slowed me down on the bike, I did enjoy the overall experience. It was my fourth semester at Harlaxton, but my first in the fall.

Anyway, here it is the end of another great year for cycling. The weather was more than cooperative for the most part. Even though this was a record year for rain, most of it was at times that bike rides were not scheduled. How many of us reached the goals we set for ourselves when it came to biking? Well, we get a chance to start anew in a week or so as the American tradition for setting resolutions is January 1st. Setting mileage goals seems to be a priority for many EBC members and this year should be no different. Just for the sake of setting goals this may help!

Memphis B&B Thanksgiving!

by Keith Weyer

The Weyer Tribe headed to Memphis Thanksgiving weekend so the Kids could visit Grandma and frolic with their cousins Anthony, Sophia & Alex, all of whom are close in age to Brett, Brock & Audrey and live directly across the street from Grandma. As Grandma's Beds & Breakfasts are superior to any commercial variety, on this Memphis Tour we partook of an alternative "B&B" ... Memphis BBQ & Biking! The BBQ part was scrumptious as we indulged in BBQ with sauce, BBQ without sauce, BBQ with cole slaw, and BBQ with cole slaw & sauce. We also fit in traditional Turkey & Dressing on Thanksgiving Day along with luscious pies and more treats than the Kids could eat.

The Biking part was an exciting new "EBC Adventure" as our visit coincided with the 1 Year Anniversary of the Shelby Farms Greenline. The Greenline extends from its western trail head at Tilman Street in mid-town Memphis, 6.7 miles east to the western edge of the Shelby Farms Park Conservancy. Once inside Shelby Farms you can head southeast on the 1.7 mile North Connector to the Visitor Center, which is adjacent to Patriot Lake and its 12 ft. wide 1.67 mile Loop Trail. The Chickasaw Trail is a 2.75 mile path within the park that meanders through pine and hardwood forest areas and past three lakes. South Trail is 4.1 miles and runs parallel to Walnut Grove Road. After exploring the paved trails within Shelby Farms, the adventure continues as you jump on the South Connector to the 200 ft. long 12 ft. wide Wolf River Pedestrian Bridge, and continue your journey on the Wolf River Greenway until it terminates beyond Wolf Lake at the Shady Grove Trail Head. Ground-breaking for a 1.1 mile extension to connect the Wolf River Greenway with trails in Germantown took place in October. Currently, a 1 mile off-trail on-road jaunt down Humphrey Boulevard will take you to the Germantown trails, if you don't mind negotiating traffic of the carbon emission variety.

So if you weigh 180 and plan to ride 500 miles to receive an EBC plaque—and you rode at 15 mph you would ride for 33.3 hrs and burn 27,205.1 calories.

And you can start off the year right.

You can start this Sunday, January 1st at the old Dam at Newburgh with the ride beginning at 1:00 p.m. with goodies and partying at 2:30 p.m., and if the weather is unbecoming, plan on the party beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Cheers and I look forward to seeing you at the Old Dam in Newburgh.

Cheers,
Paul

Memphis B&B Thanksgiving!

The real beauty of our biking adventure was that Grandma's house in mid-town Memphis is .70 mile from the Waring Street intersection with the Shelby Farm Greenline. I succeeded in dragging Brett away from his cousins long enough to fit in a wonderful 15 mile ride from Grandma's, west 2.7 miles on the Greenline to the trailhead at Tilman Road, then east for the full 6.7 mile length to Shelby Farms. Once inside the park we headed southeast along the North Connector to the Visitor Center and completed a couple of loops around Patriot Lake. I then turned Brett loose to romp with his siblings and cousins who met us at Shelby Farms at the appointed time 1.5 hours after our departure.

I continued my adventure south, exploring the Wolf River Greenway, looping back through Shelby Farms, and then heading west along the return route to Memphis, logging a total of 35 miles. Another days cycling adventure to Shelby Farms to explore paths not taken the prior day netted a total of 30 miles before a tire went flat, my CO2 was empty, and Theresa gracefully came to the rescue.

If you visit Memphis it would be worth the effort to take your Bike. It was a Super Thanksgiving weekend for the Weyer Tribe. On our next visit we are taking Bikes for the entire family. More Bikes ... more BBQ ... B&B Part Deux!
