THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

hat annual time of the year is upon all EBC members when we begin our week long vigil of prayer for a beautiful, cool to warm, sunny, calm first Sunday of October. Why is that you ask? Because the annual (32nd) Great Pumpkin Metric Bicycle Tour is scheduled for that date and we would love to see the west side roads filled with bicycles of all ages, makes and models traversing them. With the GPM in mind you might notice many of the cyclists on the road are wearing the 32nd annual official blue upper garment. Much thanks to Dave Yeley's artistic genius. Find enclosed a picture of this year's entry.

ALSO for the FIRST time the one, the only.....ta da.....

The GPM official CAP. See picture-- These will also be available on Tour date, October 6th.

Speaking of hats, EBC has produced an "official" EBC cap which will be available to EBC members. These caps are limited in number (60). If interested, please contact Paul @ 760-6158. To be eligible your membership must be active (paid up).

LOOKING GOOD! Take a peek at the EBC website and notice that much has been upgraded and updated. Thank you Jay Vercellotti.

At the very start of this month Bikewriter editor Paul Sluder and his wife visited Evansville and along with a bunch of EBC members went on an official ride. It was great! Stories flowed the whole way about the past of EBC.

The last EBC sponsored community ride on the Greenway took place this past Wednesday on one beautiful day. Plans are to resume next spring, probably in May.

See you at the Pumpkin!

10 Things I've Learned while on my Bicycle

By Nicole Bies

1. Sometimes you are not sure if your butt has become part of the seat OR your seat has become permanently attached to your butt. Don't fret, it will be okay in an average of 75 miles. Use your Utter Creams/Hoo-Ha Creams/Man Creams/Monkey Butt Powders. Yeah that's all the advice I have on sore ba-donka-donks.
2. Peanut Butter is a beautiful substance
3. Fire ants kill (or at least that's what I hear from fellow riders)
4. Horse Flies will find you. And they WILL bite you.
5. You should name hills as you ride up them (preferably pet names).
 - a. It is a fun game.
 - b. If there are baby hills after 'big bertha' you can say, 'Well look! Big Bertha had puppies!' Then you can talk to yourself about how cute the puppies are, even if they are pure torture.
6. Singing songs like 'Just Around the River Bend'/'Be a Man'/'Oklahoma'/'Booty Work' makes me smile
7. Bumpy roads + Hills + Head Wind = refer to #1
8. Fill your back pockets with pretzels and you may/will end up with pretzel mush in twenty miles.
9. Pancakes are a tasty breakfast. But not before you ride. How do I put this lightly? It's not fun pooping in a ditch.
10. If riding alone—
 - a. Play the child's game "Sweet and Sour" to get trucks to honk their awesomely loud horns.
 - Yes, there is a strategy...
 1. Wave and smile to get trucker's attention
 2. Make the honking sound while still smiling your little heart out
 3. Celebrate your successful semi-truck encounters by screaming
 - b. Talk to the cattle (they love it just as much as you do)
 - c. Pretend zombies on skateboards are following you (you will go faster, pinky promise)

Bicycle Indiana Jersey, get yours now!

The Bicycle Indiana cycling jersey is being manufactured and sold through NimbleWear USA.

The jersey is available as a club cut (a little more room) and a racer cut (think Euro sizing), available with short sleeves or sleeveless. The jersey has a full zipper and is made of a lightweight, wicking fabric.

When you place your order you'll want to specify your size, whether you want your jersey in male or female sizing, and the fit you prefer, Club or Race.

The "Silver" is the fabric and that can't be changed at the price point we're offering. We are taking orders now through October 4th. On October 5th, no further orders will be placed for this run. Once the orders have been placed and tallied, the jerseys will be manufactured and mailed directly to you.
