Our monthly club meeting is on the second Thursday of every month except FEBRUARY at the Pizza Chef in Newburgh Indiana at 6:30 PM.

Evansville Bicycle Club, Inc. Mission Statement

The Evansville Bicycle Club Inc. is an organization formed to promote bicycling in the Tri-State area. We advocate bicycle safety and education in our local communities by participating in and supporting health, fitness and cycling activities. The club provides the opportunity for cyclist of all ages and abilities to partake in cycling activities on a regular basis by offering a variety of rides weekly.

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

ll retailers are letting us know that Christmas is just around the corner. It is amazing that in the past seven or eight years how the promotion of this holiday is so much earlier. Even by the end of August some businesses had aisles devoted to Christmas items.

How about the destruction of Black Friday with Blue Sunday and then the opening of stores on Thanksgiving day. Is nothing sacred?

And speaking of retail, three of the five bicycle shops in town have changed locations:

Bob's Bicycle shop has moved two doors north on north Main Street to a larger building.

Legends (formerly the Bike Doctor) has moved to the former Top Spot location just south of the Lloyd in the strip mall with Brinker's Jewelers and Tuesday Morning.

Schellers has moved a couple blocks north to their newly constructed building on Vogel Road.

You may have noticed either on TV, in the paper or by reading the press release sent out by Ann Pendley that a Bicycle Friendly task force has been formed by Mayor Winnecke to assess the city's current bicycle presence and take steps to improve it with the goal of obtaining the first of five levels of acceptance as decided by the League of American Bicyclists. The Bronze level is just the beginning. I am proud to be one of the members and look forward to the challenge.

Seeing that yours truly is pretty much a "fair weather" biker, in the winter I try to stay moderately fit by riding my wife's 20+ year old AirDyne. The dang thing is so loud I need headphones to listen to the TV. BORING! But it is a way to keep up. Maybe I will get a real trainer for Christmas.

Here's hoping you get everything you are asking for this Christmas. How about an EBC cap for a stocking stuffer? □

HAPPY HOLIDAYS AND I WISH YOU A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Fun Adventures this spring!!

You are invited!!!

Bill Voegel and I have signed up for a build week in Louisville, KY that is with The Fuller Center for Housing this spring. That is the same organization I rode with last year and that my daughter rode with too. We are doing a "build" during the week of April 5 to April 11. I am hoping to recruit more EBCers to go along. It is kind of like a Habitat sort of thing. The Fuller Center focuses on rehabbing peoples existing homes rather than building from scratch. No real skills are required but of course skilled help is needed as well! It costs $200 if you register in November which covers your meals for Sunday night through Friday night and a t-shirt. We are staying in the free volunteer housing. If someone signs up in December through February it costs $225 and from March 1 to March 15 it is $250. They also told me that volunteer housing fills up quickly. There are hotels giving good rates for workers if that is a route you prefer, but I think that gets pricey to volunteer.

You can check it out at <http://fullercenter.org/legacybuild2014>

If you decide to register we put our group name as Evansville Bicycle Club and Diane Bies as the leader. That way we are more likely to be together on the project work site and housing. Oh, and you can sign up for only a day or two if you want at the rate of $50 a day.

I am hoping to get a good number of us going, get some publicity for the club, and even have a bike ride of some sort with the Louisville Bike Club be part of the fun. I really want to throw out a challenge to them and see if we can get some of their people to join in the effort.

Okay so it isn't all about biking but it is a good social activity for a purpose with an organization that puts on some amazing bike rides each year!!

Speaking of Fuller Center Bicycle Adventures!!

The spring ride is March 14- 21 and the summer ride is going from Atlantic City, New Jersey to Astoria, Oregon. It will be very near us some this summer too as it goes through northern Indiana. You can sign up for the whole ride or any portion of it. I hope to ride from Toledo, Ohio to Chicago, IL with them on June 22 through the 29th as well.

Check all of that out at <http://fullercenter.org/bikeadventure>

It would be great to have you along for the fun! Register early so you can start doing your fund raising! It is a very reasonably priced ride and a very great cause. It feels great to work towards putting an end to poverty housing! Come join the fun. There is a "poster" in the newsletter about the bicycle adventure too.

Any questions, don't hesitate to email me or call me. 812-453-9966 or Biesdi@aol.com editor's note: I was perusing the net one day and ran across this site titled, www.velominati.com. It's a tongue-in-cheek look at riding from an old European (Belgian) perspective. The name comes from a blend of an old Belgian movement (The Illuminati—read your history books, people!) and a bit of Catholicism. From it, I've pulled "The Rules," 93 edicts about cycling etiquette, cleaned up a bit of the language since this is a family newsletter, and is here for your enjoyment. More next month. (Paul) The Rules, Courtesy of www.velominati.com.

The Rules

K E E P E R S O F T H E C O G

We are the Keepers of the Cog. In so being, we also maintain the sacred text wherein lie the simple truths of cycling etiquette known as The Rules. It is in our trust to maintain and endorse. (continued from November issue.)

Rule #17

// Team kit is for members of the team.

Wearing Pro team kit is also questionable if you're not paid to wear it. If you must fly the colors of Pro teams, all garments should match perfectly, i.e. no Mapei jersey with Kelme shorts and Telekom socks.

Rule #18

// Know what to wear. Don't suffer kit confusion.

No baggy shorts and jerseys while riding the road bike. No lycra when riding the mountain bike (unless racing XC). Skin suits only for cyclocross.

Rule #19

// Introduce Yourself.

If you deem it appropriate to join a group of riders who are not part of an open group ride and who are not your mates, it is customary and courteous to announce your presence. Introduce yourself and ask if you may join the group. If you have been passed by a group, wait for an invitation, introduce yourself, or let them go. The silent joiner is viewed as ill-mannered and Anti-V. Conversely, the joiner who can't shut their cakehole is no better and should be dropped from the group at first opportunity.

Rule #20

// There are only three remedies for pain.

- o These arelf your quads start to burn, shift forward to use your hamstrings and calves, or
- o If your calves or hamstrings start to burn, shift back to use your quads, or

If you feel wimpy and weak, meditate on Rule #5 and train more!

Rule #21

// Cold weather gear is for cold weather.

Knickers, vests, arm warmers, shoe covers, and caps beneath your helmet can all make you look like a hardman, when the weather warrants their use. If it isn't wet or cold, save your Flandrian Best for Flemish weather.

Rule #22

// Cycling caps are for cycling.

Cycling caps can be worn under helmets, but never when not riding, no matter how hip you think you look. This will render one a DWEEB, and should result in public berating or beating. The only time it is acceptable to wear a cycling cap is while directly engaged in cycling activities and while clad in cycling kit. This includes activities taking place prior to and immediately after the ride such as machine tuning and tire pumping. Also included are cafe appearances for pre-ride espressi and post-ride pub appearances for body-refueling ales (provided said pub has sunny, outdoor patio – do not stray inside a pub wearing kit or risk being ceremoniously beaten by leather-clad biker chicks). Under these conditions, having your cap skull-side tipped jauntily at a rakish angle is, one might say, de rigueur.

All good things must be taken in measure, however, and as such it is critical that we let sanity and good taste prevail: as long as the first sip of the relevant caffeine or hop-based beverage is taken whilst beads of sweat, snow, or rain are still evident on one's brow then it is legitimate for the cap to be worn. However, once all that remains in the cranial furrows is salt, it is then time to shower, throw on some suitable après-ride attire (a woollen Molteni Arcore training top circa '73 comes to mind) and return to the bar, folded copy of pastel-coloured news publication in hand, ready for formal fluid replacement. It is also helpful if you are a Giant of the Road, rather than a giant dweeb. ⁵

Rule #23

// Tuck only after reaching Escape Velocity.

You may only employ the aerodynamic tuck after you have spun out your 53 x 11; the tuck is to be engaged only when your legs can no longer keep up. Your legs make you go fast, and trying to keep your fat ass out of the wind only serves to keep you from slowing down once you reach escape velocity. Thus, the tuck is only to be employed to prevent you slowing down when your legs have wrung the top end out of your block. Tucking prematurely while descending is the antithesis of Casually Deliberate. For more on riding fast downhill see Rule #64 and Rule #85.

Rule #24

// Speeds and distances shall be referred to and measured in kilometers.

This includes while discussing cycling in the workplace with your non-cycling coworkers, serving to further mystify our sport in the web of their Neanderthalic cognitive capabilities. As the confused expression spreads across their unbrowed faces, casually mention your shaved legs. All of cycling's monuments are measured in the metric system and as such the English system is forbidden.

DEAR EBC'ers—

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR YOUR VERY GENEROUS DONATION TO THE FULLER CENTER'S PARTNER IN SIERRA LEONE, WEST AFRICA. A HOUSE WILL BE BUILT FOR A FAMILY IN NEED BECAUSE OF YOUR GIFT TO THE FULLER CENTER'S MISSION TO END POVERTY ANYWHERE WORLDWIDE!

I JUST WANT Y'ALL TO KNOW THAT YOU WERE WITH ME EVERY MILE, FROM SAVANNAH, GA to VANCOUVER, BC. WHENEVER I WAS TIRED, LONELY, OR FRUSTRATED - I COULD SEE YOU ALL CHEERING ME ON, TELLING ME I COULD DO IT! I ABSOLUTELY LIVED THE PICTURE JUDY BREIVOGEL SENT ME OF YOU ALL AT A RIDE THIS SUMMER! THANKS FOR THE SUPPORT AND ENCOURAGEMENT!

YOUR DONATION MEANS THE WORLD TO ME AND THE FAMILY RECEIVING A HOME IN SIERRA LEONE.

Just keep Pedaling!

- Nicole Bies
(Diane's ^{aka.} Daughter)

Dear EBC,

Thank you all so much for your generous contribution to the Old Dam Community Band made in Wayne's memory. I wish the circumstances had been different but it was nice to see so many familiar faces at the funeral.

Sincerely,
Lance

EBC RIDE NOTES

December promises to be a bit more brisk weather than in the summer but we have plenty of fun opportunities to ride.

Our monthly club meeting is scheduled for Thursday December 12. This is your club. Please come to the meeting and offer your input.

Remember we have added weekday rides on Monday and Friday afternoons at 1:00. These rides are in the warmer part of the day. Check out the schedule and come join the fun.

The Club Century is scheduled for December 5 and 7. We will be doing the Folsomville Route or the Touring Route.

Wednesday night rides will all be at Wesselman Park this month due to the Festival of Lights at Garvin Park. Dinner after the ride is a fun incentive to get out on a cold night. Join us, even if only for a beverage! The lights are on in the park this year so it is much safer and better riding conditions this year. This ride is for one hour on the very flat road at Wesselman Park. There is minimal traffic. Bring your lights and come well dressed, layers! Riding at night can be very refreshing and invigorating.

We have a special ride scheduled on January 1 EBC Hosted Ride. This promises to be a great time. Members are asked to bring a dish. The club provides fried chicken.

Weather permitting there will be a fun ride but there will DEFINITELY be fun fellowship and eating at the Old Dam Site Building on the river side of the road. Please come join the fun even if you don't feel like riding. We should be eating around 2:00 or 2:30.

Remember to mark your calendar now for the Annual EBC Banquet to be held on Saturday January 25 at Kirby's fine dining.

Hope to see you out on the road finishing up any personal goals for 2013. You can do it!
