Hello everyone:

Let's get right to it, the weather is too nice to be behind a keyboard.

The 41st GPM is about a month away. EBC can't put this event on without help from you. I have been reaching out to those that help out each year in hopes they can help out again this year. If you have not heard from me yet or from one of our other arm twisters, please get a hold of me. We still have some spots that need filling. Not only would you be helping out your fellow club members but you would also be helping to fund some of the EBC causes for example, iCan Bike, Bicycle Indiana and the Evansville Trails Coalition. I hope some new faces will step up and get involved. It's not hard, only takes a few hours and you may just have some fun in the process.

We have reopened the club swag store. Now is your opportunity to purchase an EBC club jersey. Order now and you should be styling by the end of the month.

<https://tinyurl.com/3pepzjsn>

Also available is the Century Jersey. If you have done some centuries or are thinking about doing a century or can spell century, you need one of these. It's pretty awesome to see a bunch of these jerseys in the pack on Saturday mornings. <https://tinyurl.com/37j5p4du> Shout-out to our design team of Johnnie Bartley and Pat Sullivan.

Member spotlight—Roger Orth took to the road for Gravel Worlds in Lincoln Nebraska last weekend. Just your 300 mile race with 18 thousand feet of climbing. Yeah he finished 8th overall and 1st in his age group in 21 hours and 14 minutes. Now I feel tired.

Wes Jordan and Mario Leavell took their talents up north to Hancock county Indiana for the Hancock flat 50 race. Mario finished 105th out of 451 and 12th in his age group. Wes finished 23rd and 2nd in his age group with just over a 24 mph average. Nice work guys.

Be sure to tune in @ 7:30 am on 9/22/23 to WIKY 104.1 FM for the Extortion Breakfast. Our very own spokesmodel, John Nelli, who still has a face for radio, will tell the whole world why they need to register for the 41st Annual Great Pumpkin Metric.

Stay safe, buy some stuff, give a listen and volunteer for the GPM.
